SUBJECT : Lifting of the Suspension of the Expenditure of the Unexpended Balances of all Funds or Allotments Previously Released for the Construction of Various Communal Irrigation
Projects

This is to inform you that upon representation made by the undersigned, through the Secretary of Finance to the Budget Commission, suspension of the expenditure of funds previously released for the construction of communal projects have been lifted, as an exception to the order of the President suspending all expenditures of the funds released for the said purpose.

Quoted hereunder for your perusal and ready reference is the 2nd indorsement dated April 4, 1972 of the Budget Commission as follows:

"2nd Indorsement
April 4, 1972

Respectfully returned to the Administrator, National Irrigation Administration, Quezon City, with the information that the President has authorized the lifting of the suspension of the expenditure of the unexpended balances of all funds or allotments previously released for the construction of various communal irrigation projects in different provinces under the administration of that Office, in view of the representation made herein.

(SGD.) F. SY-CHANGCO
Commissioner of the Budget"

In this connection you are hereby directed to undertake immediately the prosecution of all communal projects with funds released under your respective jurisdictions provided that Programs of Work, Plans and Specifications for the same are in accordance to your delegated authority.

Please be guided accordingly.
