SUBJECT : Offer of Philippine Mental Health Association
Services to NIA

For the information/⁴all NIA officials and employees, we are passing on the recent announcement of the President of the Philippine Mental Health Association that the Association is extending its services to all NIA personnel and their families as part of their public service.

Psychiatric and counselling services, psychological testing, social work services and rehabilitation are among the services offered.

Additional information may be secured from the main office of the Association at 18 East Avenue, Quezon City, or at its Chapters in Dagupan, Davao, Zamboanga, Baguio, Cabanatuan & Cebu.

Inasmuch as a healthy mind is essential to efficient public service, all officials are encouraged to maintain and promote good mental health among their employees.
