Scope of the Third Level/p. 2

WHEREAS, in relation to the foregoing legal provisions, Section 7 (1) (3), Chapter 2, Book V of the Administrative Code of 1987 expressly stipulates as follows:

Sec. 7. Career Service. - x x x.

"The Career Service shall include:

"(3) Positions in the Career Executive Service, namely, Undersecretary, Assistant Secretary, Bureau Director, Assistant Bureau Director, Regional Director, Assistant Regional Director, Chief of Department Service and other officers of equivalent rank as may be identified by the Career Executive Service Board, all of whom are appointed by the President. WHEREAS, the Supreme Court interpreted the foregoing legal provisions in the case of Home Insurance and Guaranty Corporation vs. CSC (G.R. No. 95450, March 19, 1993), as follows:

XXX

"Respondent Cruz has not satisfactorily shown that his former position as Vice President in the HIGC belongs to the third level in the career service as prescribed by law. His former position as Vice President is not among those enumerated by law as falling under the third level, nor has he established that it is one of those identified by the Career Executive Service Board as of equivalent rank to those listed by law. Neither is it claimed that he was appointed by the President.

"We agree then with petitioner HIGC that the position of Vice President to which Cruz was formerly appointed belongs to the second level position which under the law includes professional, technical and scientific positions involving professional, technical or scientific work in a non-supervisory or supervisory capacity requiring at least four years of college works up to Division Chief level." (Underscoring Supplied)

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court in the cases of Office of the Ombudsman vs. CSC (G.R. No. 159940, February 16, 2005) and Office of the Ombudsman vs. CSC (G.R. No. 162215, July 30, 2007), had also the occasion to rule that the Third Level or the CES consists only of the positions of Undersecretary, Assistant Secretary, Bureau Director, Assistant Bureau Director, Regional Director, Assistant Regional Director, Chief of Department Service and other officers of equivalent rank as may be identified by the CESB, all of whom are appointed by the President;

WHEREAS, in the most recent case of National Transmission Corporation vs. Venusto Hamoy (G.R. No. 179255, April 2, 2009), the High Court also made it clear that only presidential appointees belong to the CES or the Third Level;

WHEREAS, the CSC is cognizant that past policies and issuances have caused confusion as to the exact delimitation or coverage of the Third Level, and that clarificatory action is urgent and imperative on the matter;
